

FY 21 4Q Safety Contest

Non-Mandatory

“Home Safe Every Day” Contest Rules

The 4th Quarter mandatory safety training is not mandatory and it's not training! It's a new and fun safety contest! We would like to know what motivates you to be safe on-the-job.

Winners will be chosen by the Safety Leadership Team (SLT) and will receive a BBQ prize pack!

The FY 21 4th Quarter safety contest is NON-MANDATORY. Regardless of contest entry, all full and part-time BCC employees WILL RECEIVE CREDIT for completing the 4th Quarter safety training. Employees do not have to register online or complete a training sign-in sheet. If you choose not to participate in the contest, there is no need to do anything.

- Follow the contest rules below.
- Complete a contest entry form.
- Contest entry and photo(s) must be sent in by August 13th to qualify for the raffle.

CONTEST RULES:

1. On the entry form and giving brief explanations, (aside of yourself and your family), describe up to three (3) reasons why you are motivated to work safely every day. You do not have to list three reasons if you don't have them; but please provide at least two.
2. Include photos as examples for your reasons, however, photos are not required for entry.
3. All contest entry forms and photos must be submitted to Lois Willneff in Risk Management, no later than August 13, 2021. Entries may be sent via email or interoffice.
4. Winners of the “Home Safe Every Day” contest will be announced via email prior to the Labor Day holiday.
5. Regardless of contest entry, all full and part-time BCC employees will receive credit for completing the 4th Quarter mandatory safety training.
